7. (Unclassified - JMD) BRIEFING Dorothy Fosdick, Permanent Investigations Subcommittee of Senate Governmental Affairs Committee staff, called and said they would like [ ] OER, to come up at 3:00 or 3:15 p.m. today to brief Professor Dwight Perkins, a consultant to the Committee, on trade with China. She said this was in preparation for Senator Henry M. Jackson's (D., Wash.) trip to China next week. She said she would sit in on the briefing. I told her I would pass this on to [ ] Chief Liaison Staff, and he would be in touch with her. She said if we had any problems with this, we should be in touch with Mike Oksenberg, NSC staff.

✓ 9. (Unclassified - LLM) LIAISON Mike O'Neil, Chief Counsel, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, called requesting copies of documents relating to the Legislative History of the 1947 National Security Act and the 1949 Central Intelligence Agency Act which will be provided. He also asked for a status report on the case of Helms v. Halkins.

10. (Unclassified - LLM) LIAISON Cliff Fowler, GAO, called to obtain a copy of the SNIE mistakenly released under FOIA. By the time I had returned his call, he had obtained the document from another source.

11. (Internal Use Only - LLM) BRIEFING Talked to Grenville Garside, Staff Director and Special Counsel, Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee, and said we were making arrangements for a briefing of himself and Daniel Dreyfus, also of the Committee staff, on the People's Republic of China's energy picture in preparation for their travel to China with Chairman Henry M. Jackson (D., Wash.)

12. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON Peter Stockton, House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Subcommittee on Energy & Power staff, called to be assured on the progress that can be expected in the meeting with Mr. Ted Shackley, A/DDO, Wednesday morning, 1 February 1978, in follow-up to the arrangements discussed in the session Friday between the Director and Chairman John D. Dingell (D., Mich.). He identified two documents of particular interest. I told Stockton that I was sure we would be able to make progress and advised Mr. Shackley.

23. (Unclassified - MMP) LIAISON Emily Thurber, from the office of Senator Alan Cranston (D., Calif.), called to find out whether the Soviet press provided coverage of Lev Shapiro's, member of the Soviet parliamentary delegation to the U.S. Congress, statement on the well being of Jews in the Soviet Union. After checking with [REDACTED] I told Ms. Thurber that TASS has not yet included anything about Shapiro's remarks, but promised that we would notify her in the event that anything were published during the remainder of the week.

24. (Unclassified - KJS) LIAISON Betsy Schmitt, from Congressional Research Service, called to ask if we had anything on Soviet aid to Third World countries in area of family planning. After checking with [REDACTED] NFAC/CSS, I called Ms. Schmitt to advise her that we had nothing on this subject.

25. (Unclassified - KJS) LIAISON Jerry Tinker, in the office of Senator Edward Kennedy (D., Mass.), called to ask if we had a computer study on African leaders and incidents, i.e. coups. Tinker did not know the title but said the author was [REDACTED]. After checking with [REDACTED] NFAC/CSS, I called Tinker to advise that we had nothing in our files.

26. (Unclassified - MMP) LIAISON Sent to Joel Johnson and Rudolph Rousseau, on the staff of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, a copy of a study, "The Non-OPEC Less Developed Countries: External Debt Positions and Prospects," which [REDACTED] OER, thought would be of interest to them.

27. (Unclassified - SF) EMPLOYMENT REQUEST Received a call from Bea Scribner, in the office of Representative Mike McCormack (D., Wash.), requesting an application and brochure (professional) for a constituent in the Representative's district office. OLC Registry was advised.

✓ 28. (Unclassified - DFM) LIAISON Called Loch Johnson, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and explained problems we were having locating two 1972 FBI memorandums requested by Tom Latimer, Committee Staff Director. I asked him for additional information he could give on them but he was unable to provide any. Later, I called Dan Coulson, FBI, to see if the Bureau could locate the documents.

29. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Stan Taylor, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and told him that the Agency [REDACTED] records had been carried on a list representing documents which were not to be destroyed because of Congressional interest. I explained that now that the moratorium on destruction was over, we would be proceeding again with the destruction of documents, and wondered if there was any further Committee interest in these records. Taylor stated there is not.

[REDACTED]

31. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Dick Giza, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and told him I had set up a meeting for him with Evan Hineman, D/OWI, for 1 February at 4:00 p.m. The meeting is in follow-up to Giza's meeting with Hineman approximately three weeks ago on the subject of OWI use of telemetry. Giza told me that NSA had prepared for Representative Charles Rose (D., N. Car.) a book of energy related reports. Giza asked if I would prepare one for CIA, both raw reports and finished intelligence studies.

32. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Ed Schallert, personal staffer of Representative Les Aspin (D., Wis.), in response to his request for a briefing on SALT for Representative Aspin. Schallert said the focus of the briefing should be on SALT II verification problems and capabilities. We did not agree on an exact time. I told Schallert that this subject could not be covered at less than the compartmented level which would mean he would have to be excluded. Schallert peacefully agreed to this.

33. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, in an attempt to eliminate confusion regarding the Committee wishes for February briefings from the Director. Official and unofficial requests from the Committee are contradictory. Miller said the Committee definitely wants three briefings, a "state of intelligence" briefing on 9 February, a "state of the world" (world wrap-up) briefing on 10 February, and an NFIP overview on 21 February.
